If you have any comments regarding the burden estimate you can write to U.S. Customs and Border Protection, Office of Regulations and Rulings, 799 9th Street, NW., Washington DC 20229.

Statement required by 5 CFR 1320.21: The estimated average burden associated with this collection of information is 6 minutes per respondent or recordkeeper depending on individual circumstances. Comments concerning the accuracy of this burden estimate and suggestions for reducing this burden should be directed to U.S. Customs and Border Protection, Information Services Branch, Washington DC 20229, and to the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project (1651-0093), Washington, DC 20503.

Privacy Act Notice: The following information is provided as required by the Privacy Act of 1974 (P.L. 93-579):

1. The disclosure of the social security number on CBP Form 3347 is mandatory.
2. The regulatory authority for requesting the social security number on CBP Form 3347 is 19 CFR 24.5(a).
3. When the importer of record has declared at the time of entry that they are not the actual owner of the merchandise, the social security number shown on CBP Form 3347 will identify the actual owner and establish liability for any increased duties and taxes.

Privacy Act Statement

Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552a (e)(3), this Privacy Act Statement serves to inform you of why DHS is requesting the information on this form.

Authority:

U.S Customs and Border Protection (CBP) is authorized to collect the information requested on this form pursuant to 19 U.S.C. 1485, and provided for by 19 CFR 24.11 and 141.20.

Purpose:

CBP is requesting this collection of information to be used by CBP to ensure that additional duties are not imposed on the importer. The information on this form is used to validate an importer's claim for such duty allowances from the owner of imported merchandise.

Routine Uses:

The information requested on this form may be shared externally, as a "routine use" with appropriate federal, state, local, tribal, or foreign governmental agencies, or multilateral governmental organizations, to assist DHS in investigating or prosecuting the violations of, or for enforcing or implementing, a statute, rule, regulation, order, license, or treaty or when DHS determines that the information would assist in the enforcement of civil or criminal laws. A complete list of the routine uses can be found in the system of records notice associated with this form, "DHS/CBP-001 Import Information System." The Department's full list of system of records notices can be found on the Department's website at <http://www.dhs.gov/system-records-notices-sorns>.

Consequences of Failure to Provide Information:

Providing this information is voluntary. However, failure to provide the information will result in the claimant of record to be liable for any increased or additional duties, and agents would be unable to make it possible for entry and clear their clients merchandise.
